About Us

- When we met each other, we knew...we had found the right one! We talked for several hours... just clicked!
- We have been together for 3 years, and before having a child we wanted to ensure that we were married and financially stable.
- We have dreamed of children for many years, and until now it hasn't felt real but now we are READY!

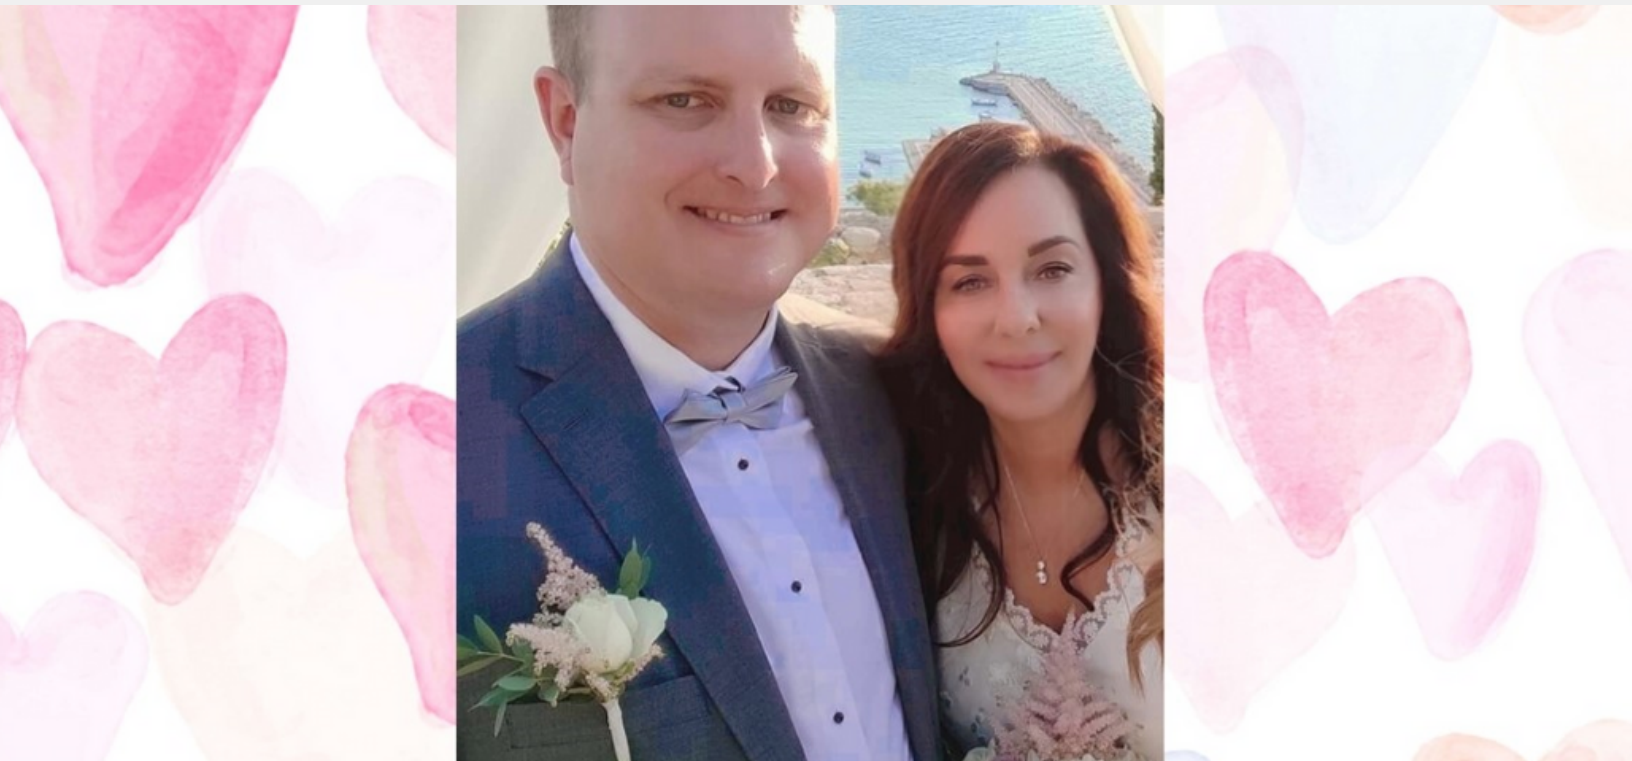

---

STEFAN SAYS

What I love most about Tina is her charisma, honesty, loyalty and unconditional love for her family. She will be the most awesome mom ever!

---

---

TINA SAYS

What I love most about Stefan is that he is a loyal honest man who has great morals and values and a good sense of humor. Stefan will make a wonderful dad!

Surrounded by Love

WHO IS GOING TO LOVE THIS BABY!

This child will be so loved, and here's who is going to love them:
Grandparents and kitties!

This child will be so loved, and here's who is going to love them:
Aunty Lia and the kitties!

This child will be so loved, and here's who is going to love them:
Grandma and Aunt and Uncles and cousins!

This child will be so loved, and here's who is going to love them: Lots of cousins , friends and Pancha our little parrot!

When our baby is born, our plans are:

When the baby is born Tina will stay home with the baby and grandparents and aunts and uncles will help when needed.

We will raise our baby with as much love as our parents blessed us with and bring him/her up to be capable, caring, confident and with the same high morals and values instilled into us by our parents. This child will have everything he/she needs to be happy and thrive in this world.

During holidays:

When we have a child, we will be so excited to decorated the Christmas tree together surrounded by music, family and good food. We are excited to enjoy the summer times outside with leisurely walks and seeing our child play up on the play structures. We will have so much fun together!

---

When we think about our baby:

We are most excited about is to share our lives with our small bundle of joy! This baby will complete our family we are so excited!

Our Childhood

STEFAN SAYS

My favourite childhood memory is... being on the farm with my dad and helping him with chores.

TINA SAYS

I hope to give my child this same experience that I grew up with...a loving supportive family and circle of friends. To give the child the opportunity to study abroad and practice music and dance if he/she desires.
