

SIMON & MATT

We are Simon and Matthew, from Burlington, Ontario. We have 9 GPT-A tested embryos waiting for the magic to happen. We are ready to welcome our surrogate with open hearts into this extraordinary experience. Our clinic is Repromed located in Toronto. In this profile, you'll find out who we are, our values and goals, and what we're looking for.

How We Met and Who We Are

We met in 2018 through a dating app and quickly realized we had something special. After spending time together and getting to know each other, we committed to move in together. Two years after that, we got married during the pandemic. Despite the challenges of the time, we were promised lifelong to each other, and we couldn't be happier.

In June 2024, we successfully created our embryos - an important milestone that filled us with hope and marked the renewal of excitement for this journey. We are anxiously awaiting the next step.

As a same-sex couple, being married to each other feels like a huge milestone, especially after finding each other across the world. After a few years together, we still felt that something was still missing - a family we would call our own.

The journey of a child's arrival is one of immense emotional and personal significance. We have so much love to give, and the desire to protect and nurture. We are prepared to embrace our surrogate with open hearts as we embark on this extraordinary journey together.

Our Timeline

As a Couple, we...

Enjoy the Outdoor

Spending time in nature is one of our favourite ways to recharge and connect. Whether it's hiking scenic trails, or taking a peaceful walk through a park, being surrounded by nature allows us to slow down, appreciate the moment, and create unforgettable memories together.

Exploring New Cities

We enjoy spontaneous road trips and weekend getaways to discover the charm of nearby cities. Exploring local culture, visiting historic sites, checking out unique shops. For us, every trip is an exciting adventure.

As a Couple, we...

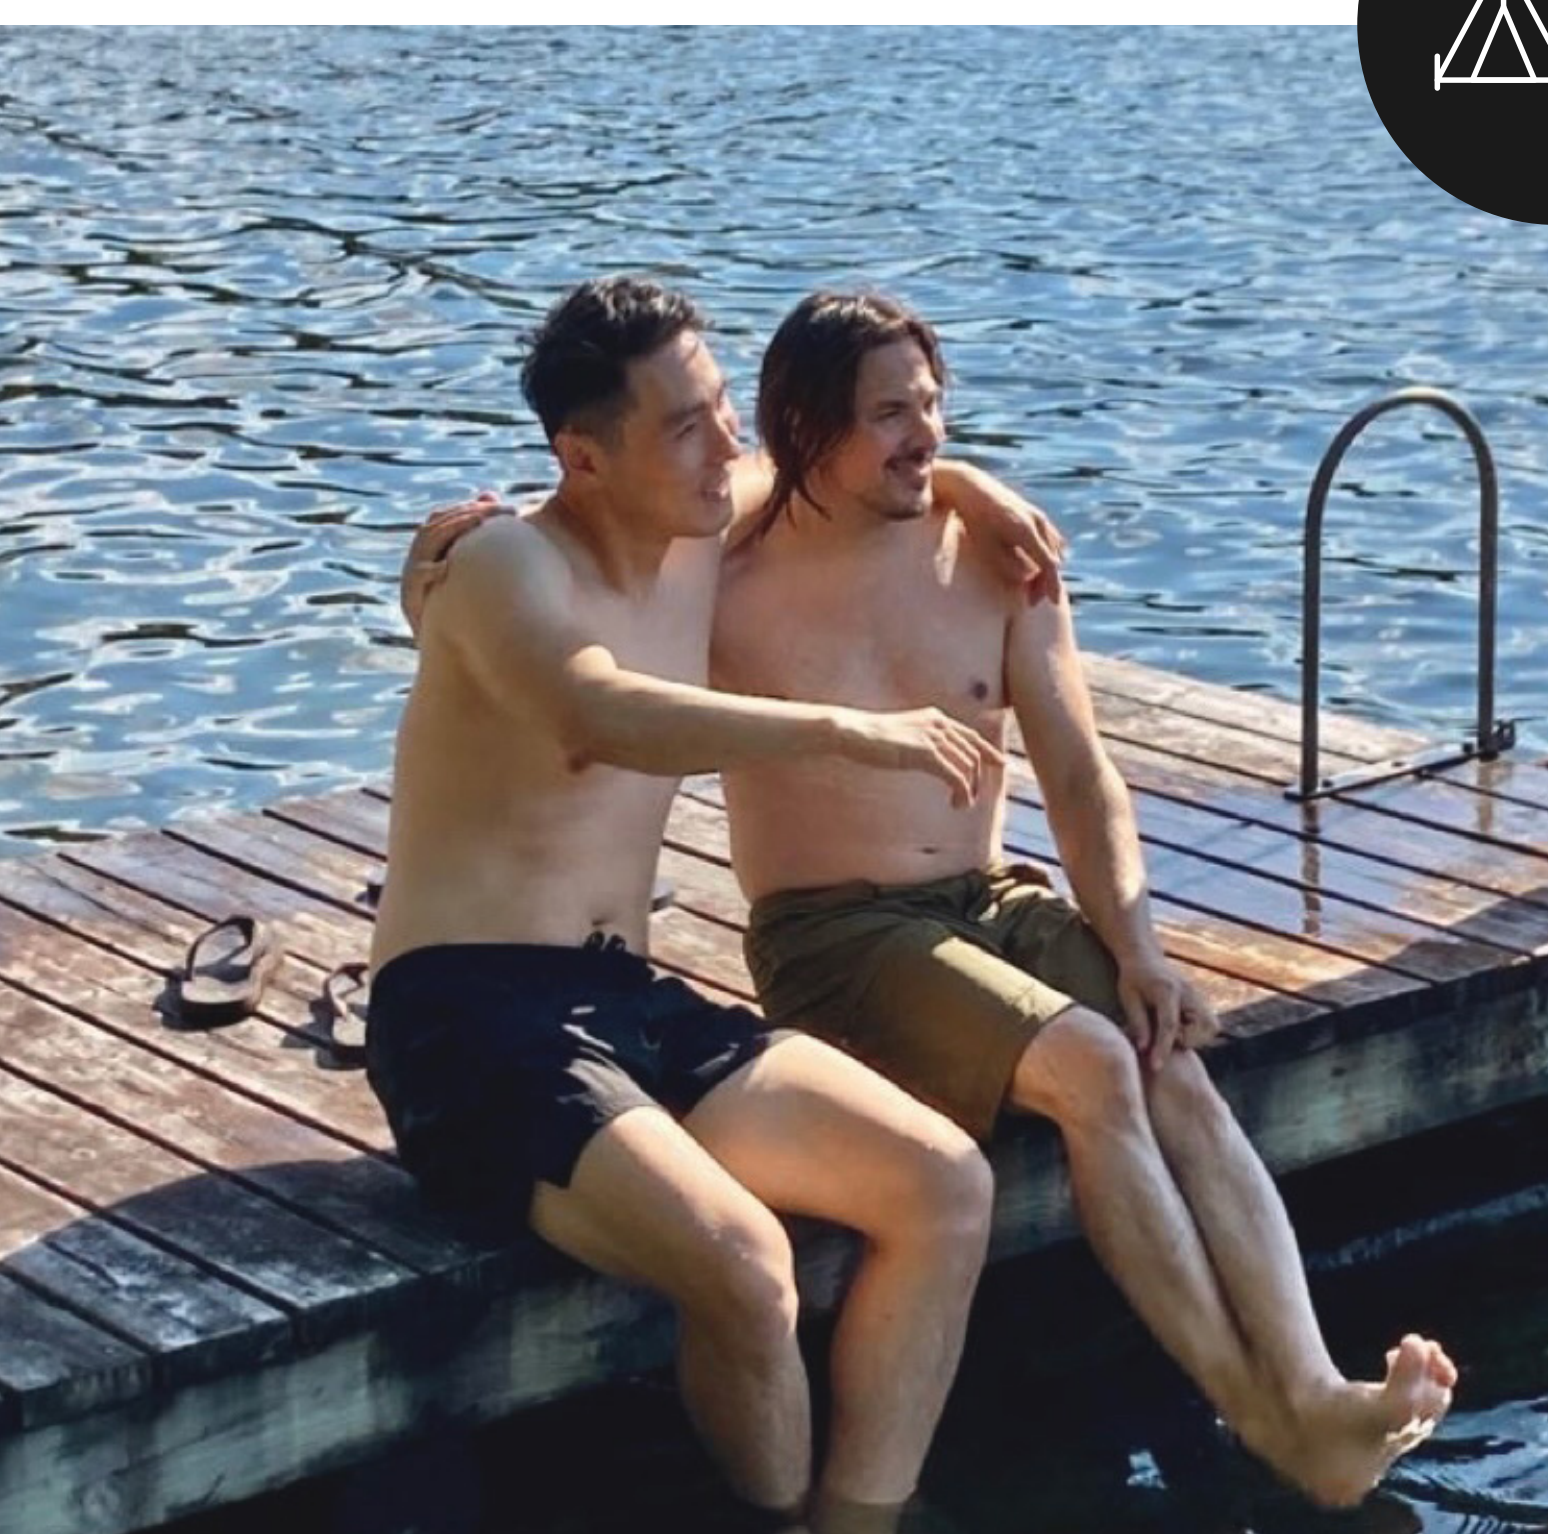

Enjoy different cuisines

We love exploring diverse cuisines and experimenting new recipes at home. From comforting homemade meals to exciting international flavours, food is a shared passion that brings us joy and fuels our adventures.

Camping activities

Camping is one of our favorite ways to unwind and immerse ourselves in nature. We cherish the simplicity and adventure of the outdoors. Camping allows us to disconnect from daily life and reconnect with each other.

About Matthew

“Life begins at the end of your comfort zone.”

Matthew is a dedicated quality engineer with a passion for problem-solving and precision. Beyond his career, he finds joy in hands-on hobbies like rock climbing and woodworking, where he can challenge himself and create something meaningful. He is calm and steady, always bringing patience and thoughtfulness into everything he does. As a partner, he is loving, supportive, and deeply committed.

Qualities

“I would describe myself as a patient and empathetic person. I can easily put myself in someone else’s shoes, feel compassion for their struggles, and help them improve their situation “

Hobbies

“I enjoy rock climbing for its physical and mental challenges, as well as the wonderful friendships I’ve built along the way. I love building guitars and playing music. This hobby has taught me patience and commitment, skills that have shaped both my creativity and perseverance.”

About Matthew

Childhood

“I had a very loving childhood with easygoing parents who taught me to treat others the way I would like to be treated. As a child, I faced learning challenges due to an auditory disability, but my parents’ unwavering support gave me the confidence to overcome my challenges. “

Goals

“I want to continue growing in my career as a professional Quality Engineer, which I truly enjoy. More importantly, I aspire to be an amazing father, giving my child all the love and support they need to thrive in life. “

About Simon

*“Feel life with your heart,
Create the future with love.”*

Simon is a creative soul with a big heart. As a graphic designer, he loves bringing ideas to life, but his passions go far beyond his work. He finds joy in art, nature, gardening, and DIY projects that bring beauty and meaning to everyday life. Simon’s kind, thoughtful nature and creative energy are at the heart of everything he does, and he’s so excited to pour that same love and care into becoming a parent.

Qualities

“I would describe myself creative, kind-hearted, and deeply passionate about life.”

Hobbies

“From a young age, I was drawn to art and nature, always creating and exploring. I have a love for art, nature, and hands-on projects, always finding beauty in the little things. “

About Simon

Childhood

“I grew up as an only child in a loving and supportive family. My parents encouraged my curiosity, shaping my creativity and deep appreciation for family. Being the only child gave me a strong sense of responsibility and a heartfelt desire to build a warm, loving home of my own. “

Goals

“Current goals for me include build a loving family, grow as a creative professional & deepen my connection with nature.”

Why we need a surrogate

Desire for Parenthood:

For us, family is built on love and connection. We want to create a home where our child feels safe, supported, and proud of who they are. Through surrogacy, we hope to start this incredible journey, building a life full of shared moments, traditions, and joy.

Cultural Values:

We want to create a family that celebrates who we are—both our Chinese and Canadian roots. These traditions mean so much to us, and we hope to pass them on to our child in a way that feels genuine and meaningful. As a same-sex couple, surrogacy gives us the incredible chance to welcome a child who shares a piece of our story and reflects the beautiful blend of our cultures.

A Family Together:

Becoming parents is a dream we’ve held close to our hearts. We’re excited to love, guide, and care for a child in a home filled with warmth, understanding, and opportunity. Surrogacy makes this possible for us, and we see it as a way to bring together the best of our backgrounds, values, and hopes for the future.

Our values and hopes

Deep Gratitude

We are profoundly grateful to anyone willing to help us on this journey, recognizing the immense generosity and kindness it takes to be a surrogate.

Unwavering Support

We are committed to being there every step of the way, offering emotional, physical, and logistical support to ensure a smooth and positive experience.

Open Communication

Honesty and transparency are important to us, and we hope to maintain open and comfortable conversations throughout the entire journey.

Lifelong Friendship

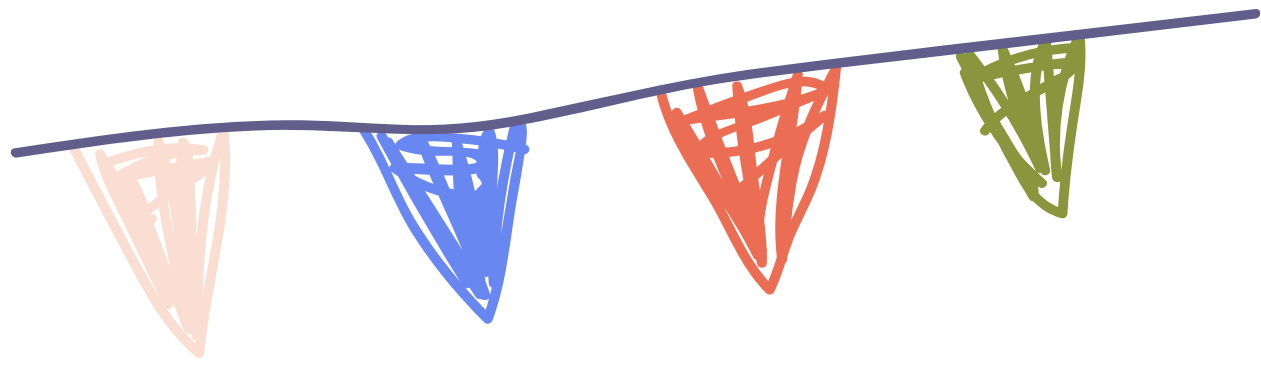

If our surrogate is open to it, we would love to build a lasting bond and stay connected beyond the surrogacy process.

Mutual Respect

We deeply respect our surrogate's role in this journey and will always prioritize her well-being, choices, and comfort.

Our Embryos Status

Ready for the next step

After more than a year dedicated to creating our embryos, we’re thrilled to begin the next chapter of our surrogacy journey. Working with Repromed, a Toronto-based fertility clinic, we’ve successfully created nine embryos, five of which are GPT-A tested. Reaching this milestone was deeply emotional for us—knowing how much it means to both our families. Matthew’s parents are getting older, and for Simon, being the only child, the dream of continuing his family’s story has significant cultural meaning.

Creating our embryos has been an incredibly heartfelt and meaningful experience for us. It’s a milestone filled with emotion and hope as we take another step closer to becoming parents. We’re excited to share the details of this important part of our journey with you. On this page, you’ll find more information about our nine embryos.

We hope you have...

Finding a surrogate is one of the most significant decisions in our lives. It’s a journey built on trust, understanding, and shared hopes for the future. Here’s what we hope for in someone who will play such an extraordinary role in helping us create our family:

Compassionate Heart

We hope to find a surrogate who is kind, empathetic, and genuinely passionate about helping others create a family.

Strong Commitment

Since this journey requires dedication and patience, we are looking for someone who is reliable, responsible, and fully committed to seeing it through.

Excellent Health

The well-being of both the surrogate and baby is our top priority, so we hope to find someone in great physical health who meets all the necessary medical requirements.

Our Commitment

We know how much emotional investment has to be committed towards being a surrogate and we'll be with you every step of the way whenever needed. We are open to be with you on doctor's checkups and will be by your side the day that you give birth and share in that special moment.

Providing Stability

We will ensure you have everything you need to feel secure and supported throughout the journey.

Meeting Needs

We will be attentive to your well-being and addressing any requirements to make the process as smooth and comfortable as possible.

Holistic Care

We will be offering support to prioritize your physical, emotional, and practical needs during this significant time.

Thank you for your consideration!

From the bottom of our hearts, we are grateful for the incredible women who choose to help families like ours, and we can't wait to meet someone who will forever hold a special place in our lives as we embark on this beautiful journey together!
